STATEMENT OF PRIVACY

At CMC Dataworks, Inc., we are committed to protecting your privacy and to developing technology that gives you the most powerful and secure online experience. You can travel through most of our site without giving us any information about yourself. But sometimes we do need information to provide services that you request, and this statement of privacy explains data collection and use in those situations. This privacy statement explains data collection and use practices of cmcdataworks.com; it does not apply to other online or offline CMC Dataworks, Inc. sites, products or services. Please read the complete cmcdataworks.com privacy statement.

Collecting Personal Information

We will ask you when we need information that personally identifies you (personal information) or allows us to contact you. Generally, this information is requested when you are registering before entering a contest, ordering e-mail newsletters, joining a limited-access premium content. Personal information collected by CMC Dataworks is often limited to e-mail address, language, country or location, but may include other information when needed to provide a service you requested.

Use of Personal Information

We use your personal information for the following purposes:

To make the site easier for you to use by not making you enter your personal information more than once. To deliver services that you request. To help you quickly find software, services or information on cmcdataworks.com. To help us create and publish content most relevant to you. To alert you to product upgrades, special offers, updated information and other new services from CMC Dataworks. We occasionally hire other companies to provide limited services on our behalf, including packaging, mailing and delivering purchases, answering customer questions about products or services, sending postal mail and processing event registration. We will only provide those companies the information they need to deliver the service, and they are prohibited from using that information for any other purpose.

CMC Dataworks, Inc. may disclose your personal information if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on CMC Dataworks, Inc. or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of CMC Dataworks, Inc. and its family of Web sites, or (c) act in urgent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of CMC Dataworks, Inc., its Web sites, or the public.

Your information may be stored and processed in the United States or any other country in which CMC Dataworks, Inc. or its affiliates, subsidiaries or agents maintain facilities, and by using this site, you consent to any such transfer of information outside of your country. CMC Dataworks, Inc. abides by the safe harbor framework as set forth by the

Control of Personal Information

When you register, or otherwise give us personal information, cmcdataworks.com will not share that information with third parties without your permission, other than for the limited exceptions already listed. It will only be used for the purposes stated above.

Registering also allows you to tell us how or whether you want cmcdataworks.com to communicate with you. After registering, go to the Profile Center and establish your preferences in the Contact Options sections. There, you can decide what information you want to receive and how you want to receive it. Or you can tell us not to contact you.

Cmcdataworks.com occasionally allows other companies to offer our registered customers information about their products and services, using postal mail only. If you do not want to receive these offers, you should uncheck the box in the Contact Options section in the Profile Center stating, "CMC Dataworks, Inc. partners can send me postal mail about their services or products."

Cmcdataworks.com may send out periodic e-mails informing you of technical service issues related to a product or service you requested.

Access to Personal Information

We will provide you with the means to ensure that your personal information is correct and current. You may review and update this information at any time. You can:
View and edit personal information you have already given us at cmcdataworks.com.
Tell us whether you want cmcdataworks.com to send you marketing information.
Choose whether you want third parties to send you their offers by postal mail.
Subscribe, or cancel subscriptions, to newsletters about our services and products.

Security Personal Information

cmcdataworks.com strictly protects the security of your personal information and honors your choices for its intended use. We carefully protect your data from loss, misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

Your personal information is never shared outside the company without your permission, except under conditions explained above. Inside the company, data is stored in password-controlled servers with limited access.

You also have a significant role in protecting your information. No one can see or edit your personal information without knowing your login credentials and password, so do not share these with others.

Protection of Children's Information

The cmcdataworks.com site does not publish content that is targeted to children. However, if you are concerned about your children providing CMC Dataworks, Inc. any personal information without your consent, CMC Dataworks, Inc. allows parents to give parental consent for the collection, use and sharing of children's (ages 17 and under) personal information online.

Use of Cookies

To ensure we are publishing content customers need and want, cmcdataworks.com collects site-visitation statistics using cookies. We only use this information in aggregated form and only use site-visitation statistics for improving our site.

When someone visits the site, sometimes a cookie is placed on the customer's machine (if the customer accepts cookies) or is read if the customer has visited the site previously.

Web beacons, also known as clear gif technology, or action tags, assist in delivering the cookie. This technology tells us how many visitors clicked on key elements (such as links or graphics) on a cmcdataworks.com Web page. We do not use this technology to access your personally identifiable information on cmcdataworks.com; it is a tool we use to compile aggregated statistics about cmcdataworks.com Web site usage. We may site statistics with partner companies but do not allow other companies to place these kinds of technologies on our sites.

If you choose to not have your browser accept cookies from the cmcdataworks.com Web site, you will be able to view the text on the screens, however you will not experience a personalized visit nor will you be able to subscribe to the service offerings on the site.

Changes to this statement

Cmcdataworks.com will occasionally update this privacy statement. When we do, we will also revise the "last updated" date at the top of the privacy statement.
